This is me

Thanks for stopping by for a read! I'm Jackie, Mum of two, married, living in my home town of Tauranga, enjoying the stunning locations in the wider Bay of Plenty region. I love coffee, wine, laughs and beach walks!

What weddings mean to me

Weddings drew me in as being a wedding photographer, I could really capture all the details, love and time spent planning such a special day. There is such a buzz around a wedding day that you can't help to get excited, get involved and fall in love with the couple that is enjoying the day that is just for them!
